

	June 14, 2005	Interference /pressure	armed opposition groups	The Manipur Hill Journalists Union suspended publication of all Churachandpur-based newspapers from June 16 to 19, 2005, in protest against "interference" and "pressure" from several armed opposition groups.
	September 07, 2005	Interference /pressure	KYKL	Underground group KYKL imposed a ban on two local dailies Matangi Yakairol and Mannaba and cable network ISTV for allegedly not "properly" reporting on the abduction of Manipur University Students Union (MUSU) president Ashok Kumar Singh.	No action taken	No action taken
	February 09 2006	Life attempt	KCP Noyon faction	Unidentified gunmen shot point blank at Ratan Luwangcha when he was general secretary of the All-Manipur Working Journalists Union (AMWJU) and bureau chief of the largest selling vernacular daily Poknapham . Fortunately he survived but sustained grievous injuries.	FIR lodged	No police officer came to take statement or make inquiry. No action taken
	April 2006	Kidnapping	Kangleipak Communist Party (KCP) - City Meetei group's personnel	Cares of the underground group Kangleipak Communist Party (KCP) - City Meetei group -- held six Imphal-based newspaper editors hostage through the night and forced them to publish a statement about the outfit's "raising day" celebration which the editors had previously ignored.	No action taken	No action taken
	April 2006	Ban	Kangleipak Communist Party (KCP) - City Meetei group	The Kangleipak Communist Party (KCP) -- City Meetei group clamped a three-month ban on the Imphal Free Press for misquoting its press statement.
	December 20, 2006	Life attempt	Unidentified gunmen	Unidentified gunmen unsuccessfully tried to kill the editor and publisher of the evening newspaper Kangla Pao , Paonam Labango Mangang, in front of his office in Imphal.	FIR lodged	No action taken or arrests made
	July 31, 2007	Bomb threat	Unidentified persons	A gift-wrapped Nokia mobile handset package containing a grenade and marked to the editor of The Sangai Express , the largest selling English daily in Manipur, was delivered to the office of the newspaper by members of Kangleipak Communist Party (KCP).	Rally taken out, sit-in protests staged, memorandum submitted to Chief Minister	VDF personnel deputed at newspaper offices
	August 2008	Interference /pressure	KCP(MC)	KCP (MC) issued threat to Poknapham , a vernacular daily for not publishing its press statement.	No action taken	No action taken